Pacific Coast Archaeological Society Quarterly

The Pacific Coast Archaeological Society Quarterly is a publication of the Pacific Coast Archaeological Society (PCAS), which was organized in 1961. PCAS is an avocational group originally founded to study and to preserve the anthropological and archaeological history of the original inhabitants of Orange County, California, and adjacent areas. The Publications Committee invites the submittal of original contributions dealing with regional history and prehistory. Although PCAS is especially interested in reports which shed further light on the early inhabitants of coastal southern California, it always welcomes reports on the wider Pacific Coast region.

Information about subscriptions to the Pacific Coast Archaeological Society Quarterly and the PCAS Newsletter is available online at www.pcas.org. Back issues of the Pacific Coast Archaeological Society Quarterly are available. An index to Volumes 1 through 40 is available as Volume 40, Numbers 3 & 4. This searchable index is online at www.pcas.org. Four Occasional Papers (on Catalina Island, Mexican Majolica, and the Peralta Adobe and a remembrance of H. B. Nicholson) have also been published by PCAS. To place an order, receive information about the Pacific Coast Archaeological Society, or submit an article for publication, email publications@pcas.org or write: Pacific Coast Archaeological Society, PO Box 10926, Costa Mesa, California, 92627. About the Authors

Henry Koerper received a BA (1965) and an MA (1968) from UC Davis. He earned his Ph.D. in anthropology at UC Riverside in 1981. His varied employments have included: CDF firefighter; USFS fire suppression field and laboratory researcher; California Army National Guard explosives technician; archaeological field excavator (e.g., Old Sacramento Project, Prescott College Black Mesa Project); Peace Corps teacher and athletic coach (Voi Harambee High School, Kenya); college anthropology professor (Chapman College [5 years] and Cypress Community College [30 years]); and archaeological consultant to several southern California CRM firms. Semi-retirement allows Dr. Koerper time to help produce the PCAS Quarterly.

Don Laylander, a Senior Archaeologist with ASM Affiliates in Carlsbad, California, has a BA in history from UCLA and an MA in anthropology from San Diego State University. His thesis (1987) is titled Sources and Strategies for the Prehistory of Baja California. Together with Jerry D. Moore, he edited The Prehistory of Baja California: Advances in the Archaeology of the Forgotten Peninsula (2006). In 100 publications and conference presentations, he has explored diverse archaeological, ethnohistorical, ethnographic, and linguistic approaches to reconstructing the prehistory of both Alta and Baja California. A particular interest has been the history of previous investigations of Baja California’s past.
